DAY TO REMEMBER

MEMORIAL DAY • MAY 26, 2008

Programs

April 1 - Bob DiBiasio, VP of Promotions for the Cleveland Indians, shared his excitement for the Indians' season that opened the night before. Manager Eric Wedge is focusing on the moment with his two rules for players: respect the game and respect teammates. Bob explained the holistic, team approach. Bob has been with the Indians for 29 years and said the biggest change over the years has been the growth of physical conditioning and nutrition. Thanks to Heather for providing the baseball atmosphere complete with peanuts and crackerjacks!

April 8 - Nan Washburn, conductor candidate for the Firelands Symphony, started her music career playing and teaching the flute. She began conducting at the age of 30 finding that as music director she would have the opportunity to choose the music, as well as develop the orchestra and education programs. Rotarians were invited to attend the April 12 concert. Nan is the final candidate and the Symphony board expects a decision soon

April 15 - Jack Ross presented an informative and entertaining talk on the history of the Huron Rotary Club. The complete text will be posted to the Club's website: www.huronrotary.org

Fred Fox, Grant Walls, Martin Lesnak, Dave Dreffer, Trey Hardy, Bob Eirons, and Doug Studer were recognized for their successful efforts in bringing in new members.

April 22 - AARP Ohio President Joanne Limbach shared the activities of AARP including non partisan support of healthcare and financial initiatives, Tax Aid help, Driver's safety to sharpen driving skills and Divided We Fail to encourage legislators and candidates to deal realistically with financial security and health care.

April 29 - Sharon Schaeffer of the Erie County Health Department

Four Way Test of the Things We Say and Do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
